Another Great Sunday In The Park!

Sunday in the Park is a signature event for the College Park Neighborhood Association and a defining event for College Park. Great weather, a record number of vendors and volunteers, and a hard working committee made this year's event a success. We were also able to secure a one-time Mayor's Neighborhood Matching Grant this year, which provided necessary additional financial support.

This year's Sunday in the Park Committee worked hard at putting the event together and attracting new visitors, volunteers, vendors and sponsors. Planning for the Sunday event takes three months. The planning involves pulling City permits, arranging vendors, entertainment, sponsors and volunteers, logistics and supplies as well as marketing of the event and communicating details. It is a lot of work! But we pull it off and have fun in the process with a fantastic committee, assistance of the City of Orlando, the commitment of time and many other resources by numerous volunteers and sponsors. This is an entirely neighborhood run event and we need member participation to continue this great tradition. We are already looking at adding additional vendors and entertainment for next year. Lillian Scott and Bruce Thomas will be the Co-Chairs for next year's event.

If you would like to get involved or be contacted about participating in next year's event, please contact us at president@collegeparkorlando.org or (407) 872-7725.

Special thanks to the City of Orlando for our Mayor's Neighborhood Matching grant, to Mayor Dyer for attending and to Susan Harris in the Office of Neighborhood & Community Affairs.

Many thanks to all our volunteers:

President's Message

Spring has sprung in College Park! We kicked off the season with our 15th annual Sunday in the Park on March 26th with thousands of friends and neighbors who came to share a fun day out at Dartmouth Park. It was great to see you all there on such a beautiful day. Special thanks to the Mayor for joining us too.

We then had about 85 neighbors attend our monthly meeting on April 3rd for a presentation on Planning and Zoning basics for College Park by Dean Grandin, Director of the Planning Division, City of Orlando. This was part of our effort to provide relevant information and engage members in discussions of community importance. A more detailed summary is below for members who are focused on the future of College Park but weren't able to join us for this thoughtful and educational overview.

Many of us also went out to the polls for the Tuesday, April 11th run-off election for the City Council District 3 seat covering College Park, Baldwin Park, Rosemont and other parts in between.

Robert Stuart, a College Park native, won the seat with 58% of the vote and takes office on June 1. We are looking forward to working closely with Mr. Stuart on initiatives that preserve, protect and enhance the character of College Park.

We also want to thank Commissioner Vicki Vargo for her 6 years of hard work and public service to our community.

Spring is always a good time for renewal and engagement – it is when we plant and things start to grow again. So come out and get involved in the things taking shape in our area. We meet monthly on the first Monday of every month at the College Park Community Center at 7:00 p.m. We hope to see you at our next meeting on Monday, May 1st featuring a presentation on I-4 expansion, including design enhancements. In the meantime, hope to see you around College Park – Leza

See CPNA'S Historical Displays At The Washington Mutual On Edgewater Drive

If you missed the Historical Committee's displays at Sunday in the Park, you can see some of the posters and maps in the lobby of the College Park Washington Mutual. CPNA membership forms and "History Handouts" will also be available there.

Many people remarked on our reproductions of Orlando maps from bygone days and some people wanted to purchase one. We have been able to ease the maps from their backing so that they can be copied and are planning on selling copies at our Historic Homes Tour this fall. Call Grace Hagedorn for more information at (407)841-1228.

College Park Neighborhood Association Newsletter Change

The CPNA Newsletter is considering changing to an email version. We are looking to streamline our work load, provide more timely information and cut printing/mailling costs. Our goal is to have all members with email switched to the new email format by the end of summer. If you could take a moment and update your member record with your name and email address, this will help us move along with this project. Please send your name and email address to aarial@cfl.rr.com.

Next Historic Homes Tour November 12

CPNA's annual Historic Homes Tour is expected to happen a week early this year – Sunday, November 12, 2006. We hope this date will allow more College Park residents to attend ahead of the usually busy pre-Thanksgiving weekend.

The theme of the tour will be Mediterranean style homes of the 1920's and 1930's. Contact Chris at crep128@earthlink.net for more information or to volunteer to help with the tour.

Planning and Zoning in College Park

We hosted a presentation by Dean Grandin, Director, City of Orlando Planning Division on the basics of planning and zoning at our April 3rd CPNA meeting.

Mr. Grandin provided maps showing the current zoning and future land use along Edgewater Drive and within College Park. The current zoning and future land use was put in place for the most part in the 1980s. We also have a non-binding Horizons 2000 Plan.

Mr. Grandin explained and provided materials on the basics of the planning and zoning process, including how to apply for changes and lodge objections, and he answered questions. He informed us that there will be a review of the Comprehensive Plan (governing future land use document) for Orlando over the next two years and the opportunity for community input. We are looking forward to further details on that process. Several audience members also questioned the process for community input to current plans in the meantime. We are planning to discuss further the opportunity to participate in a meaningful master plan process for College Park with community input.

For further information on the current Comprehensive Plan or current land use and zoning maps for College Park, please see these materials posted by the Planning Department at www.cityoforlando.net. If you would like a copy of the presentation made to CPNA or have specific matters that you would like to see addressed in a planning process or are interested in getting involved, please contact us at (407) 872-7725 or president@collegetparkorlando.org.

C. A. T. Eyes Training In College Park

C. A. T. Eyes – Community Anti Terrorism Training is a national program developed to help citizens spot potential terrorist activity and also to be aware of the resources terrorists use to carry out their agenda.

This program does not use racial profiling and is endorsed by congressman, law enforcement and civic associations, including the Arab American Institute.

The program is not designed to make spies out of law abiding citizens; it is designed so that people can learn how to be another pair of eyes and ears for law enforcement. Understanding how terrorists work gives citizens an idea of what to look for, and even more importantly how to report any activity that just does not look or feel right.

College Park CERT – your Community Disaster Team is sponsoring a C. A. T. Eyes Training program on Monday, April 24, at the College Park Community Center which is located behind Princeton Elementary School. The instructor will be Melodie Ray, Orlando Citizens Corp Coordinator for the Orlando Office of Emergency Management. This program is open to all residents who have an interest in "Protecting America With Pride, Not Prejudice." For more information contact Bill Jennings, CERTCollegePark@aol.com or (407)898-2946.
