

COLLEGE PARK

NEIGHBORHOOD ASSOCIATION

Monthly Meeting Agenda
College Park Community Center
Monday, March 4, 2019

Welcome and Call to Order
Introduction of Board, Guests, and Visitors

Committee Report

Stephanie Martin

Saturday in the Park with Music and the Arts

Spotlight on Business

Jen Hackney

Owner, Gratitude Coffee

Commissioner's Quarterly Report

Commissioner Robert Stuart

Keynote Speaker

David Parks, I-4 The Ultimate Project

FDOT consultant & Public Information Officer

Closing Comments / Door Prizes

President - Donn Carr

Vice President - John Brownsord

Treasurer - Nick Geinosky

Secretary - Stephanie Martin

Directors - Becky Dreisbach, Rachel Hunter, Allie Loveland,
Andrew Nash, and Tom Roberts

Association Objectives

The objectives of this Association is to fulfill the purposes listed in the articles of incorporation:

- To preserve, protect and improve the character of College Park
- To preserve, protect and encourage the natural beauty fo College Park
- To promote the safety, quality of education, quality of life, and general welfare of the children of College Park
- To promote the interest of College Park with any governmental entities or agencies
- To promote community involvement and activities in College Park
- To promote businesses within College Park
- To promote voluntary membership in this Association which membership shall be open to all person and businesses that reside or do business with the area bounded by Orange Avenue, Colonial Drive, Orange Blossom Trail and Fairbanks Avenue.

SAVE THE DATES:

Saturday in the Park with Music and the Arts

Saturday, March 9, 2019

Dartmouth Park 11am - 10 pm, Carnival, Movie in the Park and College Park's First Silent Disco.

Upcoming CPNA Speakers

Monday, April 8,, 2019

Mike Marinaccio - Festival Producer The Fringe

Monday, May 6, 2019

Orlando Rolón, City of Orlando Chief of Police